Religious Education Teacher/Studies of Religion (Stage 6)

Full-Time Permanent Religious Education - Commencing Term 1 2027

Classification: Teacher

Reports to: Head of Religious Education

We are seeking an experienced Religious Education/Studies of Religion Teacher with the ability to teach Stage 6. You will play a vital role in shaping the intellectual and spiritual development of students at the College. This full-time position offers the opportunity to teach RE and Studies of Religion at the senior secondary level.

If you're passionate about making a difference in the lives of young people and contributing to the school's mission of fostering academic excellence, ethical leadership, and spiritual growth within the vibrant community at St Scholastica's College, we encourage you to apply for this exciting opportunity.

About the Role

- Plan and deliver engaging, student centred lessons that deepen students' understanding of world religions and their role in society.
- Assess and provide effective feedback on student work, ensuring they meet academic standards.
- Contribute to the development and implementation of the Religion and Studies of Religion curriculum.
- Collaborate with colleagues to share best practice and continuously improve teaching methods.
- Provide pastoral care and support to students, fostering their personal and spiritual growth.
- Support school liturgies, retreats, reflection days and faith-based initiatives.
- Participate in school events and activities that promote the College's Catholic ethos.

About you

- Relevant teaching qualifications and NESA accreditation.
- Experience teaching Religion and Studies of Religion.
- Demonstrated ability to create engaging and innovative lesson plans that cater to diverse learning styles.
- Strong interpersonal and communication skills, with the ability to build positive relationships with students, parents, and colleagues

- Passion for Catholic education and a commitment to the spiritual development of young people.
- Ability to work collaboratively as part of a dynamic teaching team.
- Current NSW Working With Children Check.
- Commitment to the values, culture and community of an independent girls' boarding school.
- Actively support the Catholic ethos of the College and engage with the wider College community;

What we offer

- Competitive salary and benefits package, including access to Fitness Passport
- Opportunities for professional development
- Supportive and collegial work environment that values work-life balance
- On-site Parking and newly renovated offices

About Us

As a member school of Good Samaritan Education, St Scholastica's takes pride in educating young women who, with justice and compassion, will make a difference in the world. Our school community is guided by the values of compassion, courage, and commitment, and we are dedicated to empowering young women to reach their full potential.

If you're passionate about making a difference in the lives of young people and contributing to the vibrant community at St Scholastica's College, we encourage you to apply for this exciting opportunity.

To apply, please visit www.scholastica.nsw.edu.au/employment and provide:

- completed Application Form
- your CV
- short covering note

Please send to: HR@scholastica.nsw.edu.au.

St Scholastica's College is committed to the development of work systems, practices, policies, and procedures that promote child protection, child safety, and child wellbeing within our College.

Please note only shortlisted candidates will be contacted and interviewed as applications are received. The position may be filled prior to the deadline.

In accordance with Child Protection legislation, all employees must maintain a valid Working With Children Check

Applicants must have full working rights to work in Australia.

CLOSING DATE: Tuesday 17 November 2026 at 8.00am

Please note only shortlisted applicants will be contacted.