Head of Mathematics (Years 7–12)

Fulltime Leadership Position - Commencing 2027

Classification: Teaching

Reports to: Assistant Principal, Teaching & Learning

An Exceptional Opportunity at a Leading Independent Girls' Boarding School, we are seeking an outstanding Head of Mathematics to lead our dynamic Mathematics Faculty in a thriving independent girls' boarding school. This is an exciting opportunity for an experienced educational leader who is committed to fostering a culture of excellence, innovation and student achievement while empowering girls to develop confidence and success in Mathematics.

As a key academic leader within the College, the Head of Mathematics will drive outstanding learning outcomes across Years 7–12, lead curriculum innovation, mentor and develop teaching staff, and champion a strong culture of numeracy across the school. The successful candidate will have a proven track record teaching senior Mathematics, including Mathematics Advanced and Mathematics Extension 1 and 2 is an advantage, also demonstrate the ability to lead and inspire others.

St Scholastica's College is a leading Catholic independent girls' school and boarding community in the Good Samaritan tradition. We are committed to providing an inclusive, values-based education that empowers young women to make a positive difference in the world.

About you

The successful applicant will demonstrate:

- Proven success teaching Mathematics Advanced. Extension 1 and 2 is an advantage.
- Strong knowledge of Stage 4–6 Mathematics curriculum and HSC requirements.
- Demonstrated leadership experience in a faculty leadership role or equivalent.
- A track record of achieving outstanding student learning outcomes.
- Excellence in curriculum leadership, teacher mentoring and staff development.
- Exceptional interpersonal and communication skills.
- A passion for inspiring young women to pursue excellence in STEM and Mathematics.
- The ability to foster positive relationships with students, staff and families.
- A commitment to innovation, continuous improvement and educational excellence.
- Appropriate tertiary teaching qualifications.
- Accreditation with NESA and eligibility to teach in NSW.
- Current NSW Working With Children Check.
- Commitment to the values, culture and community of an independent girls' boarding school.

- Actively support the Catholic ethos of the College and engage with the wider College community;

What we offer

- Competitive salary and benefits package, including access to Fitness Passport
- Opportunities for professional development
- Supportive and collegial work environment that values work-life balance
- On-site Parking and newly renovated offices

About Us

As a member school of Good Samaritan Education, St Scholastica's takes pride in educating young women who, with justice and compassion, will make a difference in the world. Our school community is guided by the values of compassion, courage, and commitment, and we are dedicated to empowering young women to reach their full potential.

If you're passionate about making a difference in the lives of young people and contributing to the vibrant community at St Scholastica's College, we encourage you to apply for this exciting opportunity.

To apply, please visit www.scholastica.nsw.edu.au/employment and provide:

- completed Application Form
- your CV
- short covering note

Please send to: hr@scholastica.nsw.edu.au.

St Scholastica's College is committed to the development of work systems, practices, policies, and procedures that promote child protection, child safety, and child wellbeing within our College.

Please note only shortlisted candidates will be contacted and interviewed as applications are received. The position may be filled prior to the deadline.

In accordance with Child Protection legislation, all employees must maintain a valid Working With Children Check

Applicants must have full working rights to work in Australia.

CLOSING DATE: Monday 16 November at 8am.

Please note only shortlisted applicants will be contacted.